

Name _____ Date _____

Linking Verbs

A verb is a word which expresses action or being.

A linking verb joins the subject to a noun or adjective in the predicate of a sentence.

examples of linking verbs: am, is, are, was, were, be, being, been example of a linking verb in a sentence: Jamie was the captain of our team.

Circle the linking verb in each sentence!

Billy's old green jacket is too small.

We were the spelling bee champions last year.

The dogs at the farm were friendly.

Beth's clothes are muddy.

Melinda is the fastest runner on our team.

My socks are soft and warm.

The five fish were happy and healthy.

My favorite ink color is dark purple.

I will be an elf in the school play.

Apple pies are delicious.