

Directions: Create a class chart with the columns: Thurgood Marshall, Abigail Adams and Sojourner Truth. Cut out the cards below, discuss and have students sort and attach card to the correct historical figure column. After activity, discuss why these historical figures were good citizens.

she worked to improve the rights of African Americans after slavery ended	was born a slave, and her given name was Isabella Baumfree
she and her baby daughter escaped from her slave owners	gave a famous speech called "Ain't I A Woman" changed her name to mean "traveler" and "honest" and became a preacher	was not able to go to school so her mother taught her how to read and write won her case in court to have her son Peter (who was sold illegally) returned	believed that slavery was evil and was a threat to America