

Name _____
Class _____

Date _____

Topic: Literature 20

Write following paragraphs about the topic given while maintaining the idea of the paragraph.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the airport terminal in London was the humidity. It felt like I had entered a different world. The air was thick and sticky, and the people were dressed in light-colored clothing. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it.

Topic Sentence _____

Concluding idea _____

2. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the airport in London was the humidity. It felt like I had entered a different world. The air was thick and sticky, and the people were dressed in light-colored clothing. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it.

Topic Sentence _____

Concluding idea _____

3. Through the long drive, my eyes kept on the horizon. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it. I had heard that London was a beautiful city, but I had never experienced it before. The humidity was a new experience for me, and I was not sure how I would feel about it.

Topic Sentence _____

Concluding idea _____