

Mountain Language Round #1

Name: _____

1. Is the noun concrete, abstract, collective, or compound? The United States' team won many Olympic medals. _____
 2. Re-write the phrase to show the correct possessive form.
the car of Wilfredo
-

Prompt for #3: Little kids discover lots of bugs under rocks.

3. Is the underlined verb above active or passive? _____
 3. Rewrite the sentence from above, changing active verbs to passive and passive to active.
-
-

4. Write the correct verb. The seventh graders (brang, brought) the required materials to class.

 5. Create a complete sentence from this: While listening to Barbara Walters
-
-

Prompt for #6: (Was/Were) you in the Smithsonian very long?

6. Write the subject. _____ Write the correct verb. _____
7. Write the correct adjective. _____ (This, These) kinds of sentences are fun to do!
8. Write the correct adverb. _____ Hillary Clinton decided somewhat (quick/quickly) to run for the Senate.
9. Write the appropriate word for correct meaning of the sentence. _____ Genreal Eisenhower gave orders to pass the ammunition (between/among) the troops.
10. Write the required form of the underlined word. past perfect tense of hoped

11. Write the correct pronoun. Just between you and (me, I), we need exercise to stay healthy.

12. Identify the underlined pronoun(s) as demonstrative, interrogative, intensive, personal, relative, or indefinite. _____
Joe, himself, is very talented.