| Decision to Change In making a decision to change, it can be helpful to think about the good things and less good things about changing. Check the TOP 2 or 3 things that apply to YOU. The behavior(s) I am thinking of changing is:(are): | | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Good things about not changing | | Less good things about not changing | |
| 000000 | I don't have to deal with my problems I have something to do when I am bored I fit in with my friends I have more fun at parties It helps me calm down and relax Other Other | 000 0 0000 | I feel guilty or ashamed I don't like the way I look and feel after use It is a source of conflict between me and my family It is a source of conflict between me and my friends I will have money problems I will continue to feel anxious and depressed I will harm my health Other |
| Less good things about changing | | | Good things about changing |
| 00 0 | I will feel more depressed and/or anxious I won't have anything to do when I'm bored I won't have any way to relax I will have to change my social life I won't fit in with some friends | 00 00 00 0 | I will feel more in control of my life I will gain more self-esteem It will improve my relationship with my family I will have more money I will have fewer problems at work and/or school It will make it easier to achieve life goals Other Other |

Date:_____

Name:_____

Adol_DB Exercise 1/28/11