

1. A simplified charge pump IC circuit employs two external capacitors to produce a 2X dc output. It does not require an inductor or transformer.