

Name _____

CCSS 1.L.1.b Use common, proper, and possessive nouns.

Pronouns

Pronouns take the place of a noun in a sentence.

Example: Gabe likes to draw. He does not like to write.

The pronoun he takes place of the noun Gabe

Common pronouns used in the subject of a sentence include: he, she, you, we, they, and I.

Common pronouns used in the predicate of a sentence include: him, her, you, us, them, and me.

⇒ Directions: Write the correct pronoun to take the place of the underline noun or nouns.

1. Allison did not turn in any homework this week. _____
2. Did you give the ball back to Mason? _____
3. I don't know if Ken came to school today. _____
4. Laci ate all of the cookies on the plate. _____
5. Daniel and Peyton were at the store yesterday. _____
6. Tell Jurnee and Desi to come back inside. _____
7. The teacher told Haley to turn the page. _____
8. Did anyone see which way Katie went? _____