

Movie Activity

Movie: A Beautiful Mind

A beautiful Mind is a 2001 film about the life of JOHN NASH, an eccentric but brilliant mathematician who developed schizophrenia.

Director: Ron Howard

Release date: February 16th, 2001 (USA)

Genre: Drama

Main characters: JOHN NASH (Joaquin Phoenix), ANNE FRANK (Jennifer Connelly), FREDERICK (Ed Harris)

Length: 135 minutes

● Before the film is finished, read the movie "A beautiful Mind" and answer the following questions.

1 - When Charles Herman, John Nash's roommate, drives, he introduces himself as "the privilege man" - why does he say such things?

2 - Based on the way both Charles Herman and John Nash behave themselves, what differences can you tell?

3 - Charles Herman says "being invisible is good"

-According to the context, what does Charles mean by good?

4 - John Nash tells Charles Herman "That is how normal life is for the rich and I will never distinguish myself from the rest" - why does he say such a thing?

-Why must he find an way to distinguish himself and to matter?

5 - How is JOHN Nash seen by his colleagues?
