

ADVANCED TEST
ON SCIENCE UNIT
GRADE 5

NAME: _____

Section A

CIRCLE THE LETTER NEXT TO THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. Lava and hot gases are produced by
 - a. convection
 - b. condensation
 - c. volcanoes
2. The layer below the earth's crust is called
 - a. core
 - b. mantle
 - c. inner core
3. Melted rocks come to the surface of the earth because of the activity of
 - a. convection
 - b. volcano
 - c. soil erosion
4. Rocks are broken down into smaller pieces by water, wind and
 - a. human
 - b. growing plants
 - c. dead plants
5. Weathering are most likely to take place
 - a. where two plates meet
 - b. on the sea bed
 - c. on the mountain top
6. The outer most part of the earth is called
 - a. inner core
 - b. mantle
 - c. crust
7. Fracturing and abrasion are two processes involved in
 - a. mechanical weathering
 - b. biological weathering
 - c. chemical weathering
8. A volcano which has not erupted for thousands of years can be termed as
 - a. dormant
 - b. extinct
 - c. active