

Food groups

A collection of various food items arranged in a grid-like fashion. Each item is accompanied by a blank rectangular label for labeling. The items include:

- Top row: A plate of mixed fruits, a whole chicken drumstick, a bunch of leafy greens, and a bowl of soup.
- Second row: A jar of jam, a carton of milk, a whole fish, a bowl of pasta, and a carton of milk.
- Third row: A bowl of cereal, a small bowl of jam, a large rounded box containing a grid of small icons, a bowl of soup, and a bowl of cereal.
- Fourth row: A bowl of fruit, a slice of cheese, a bowl of soup, and a bowl of cereal.
- Fifth row: A jar of jam, a bunch of grapes, a bottle of milk, a stack of bread, a sandwich, and a bowl of cereal.
- Bottom row: A slice of pizza, a bowl of cereal, a bowl of cereal, a stack of bread, a sandwich, and a bowl of cereal.

© 2010 Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved. This material is intended for use with the Pearson Education, Inc. curriculum. All other trademarks are the property of their respective owners.