

Consonants: b / d / p (2)

A. Fill in the missing letters ('b', 'd' or 'p') in this joke.

It was half _ast one in the mi__le of the night when the _lum_er's _hone rang. It was the _octor. He sai_ that his toilet was _roken an_ coul_ the _lum_er come roun_ to fix it at once.

The _lum_er aske_ if it coul_ wait until the morning. The _octor was angry. He sai_ that _eo_le ex_ecte_ him to come out at any time of the _ay or night an_ the _lum_er shoul_ _o the same.

The _lum_er got out of _e_, got _resse_ an_ _rove roun_ to the _octor's _lace. He went straight to the toilet, threw a _aracetamol ta_let _own it an_ sai_ to the _octor,

“If it’s not _etter _y lunchtime tomorrow, _hone me an_ I’ll _op roun_ again !”

B. Write down the shortest and longest words you can think of which begin and end with these letters:

Example: d ____ p = dip develop

1. b ____ d

3. b ____ p

2. p ____ d

4. d ____ d