

Question 1 (100%) Final Exam

1. Why do you think the researchers reported the results of the study in a way that was biased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

2. Why do you think the researchers did not report the results of the study in a way that was unbiased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

3. The authors of the study, "Why do you think the researchers did not report the results of the study in a way that was unbiased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?"

4. Why do you think the researchers did not report the results of the study in a way that was unbiased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

5. Why do you think the researchers did not report the results of the study in a way that was unbiased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

6. What do you think is the purpose of the study? What do you think the researchers should do to make the study more unbiased? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

7. Why do you think the researchers did not report the results of the study in a way that was unbiased? What do you think if you could go back to the study and reanalyze the data, would you have a different conclusion? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?

8. What do you think is the purpose of the study? What do you think the researchers should do to make the study more unbiased? Why? What do you think the people in charge of the study should do?
