

Assignment: "I Was a Slave"

1. Write a paragraph answering the question below in your own words.

2. What are some of the specific acts of injustice against African-Americans that King often referenced?

3. How did the goal of his speech King mentioned differ from others? Why do you think he called it "difficult"?

4. "I have a dream" was a promise specifically to young to African-Americans the need for change but message directed more for federal legislators help national administration. If you believed the most needed that day, do you think you would have remembered King's speech? Why or why not?