

Community Helpers

Lead students in singing this song. Then ask them to name people in the community who help keep them safe, such as police officers, firefighters, and crossing guards. Continue with the additional verses for youngsters to first name workers who keep them well and strong and then to name workers who help them learn things.

(Sing to the tune of "The Mulh Man")

Oh, who works in your neighborhood,
Your neighborhood, your neighborhood?
Who works in your neighborhood
And helps to keep you safe?

For additional verses, replace the underlined phrase with phrases such as the following: keeps you well and strong, helps you learn new things.

©2010 Scholastic

Community Helpers

Lead students in singing this song. Then ask them to name people in the community who help keep them safe, such as police officers, firefighters, and crossing guards. Continue with the additional verses for youngsters to first name workers who keep them well and strong and then to name workers who help them learn things.

(Sing to the tune of "The Mulh Man")

Oh, who works in your neighborhood,
Your neighborhood, your neighborhood?
Who works in your neighborhood
And helps to keep you safe?

For additional verses, replace the underlined phrase with phrases such as the following: keeps you well and strong, helps you learn new things.

©2010 Scholastic