Name: Occupational Information Student Worksheet	odd #1	even
Identify educational requirements, salary, job description, and occupational six career areas that match your profile by completing the Occupational Info Worksheet. This will total three different worksheets.
Career:
Find out some information about your specific career choices. Make sure your formation in all these areas:	ou find
1. Salary (How much does this job pay on the average?):
<ol> <li>Educational Requirements (What kind and how much education do this type of career?) Years of training/college, type of degree, intern</li> </ol>		l for
3. Job description (What do they do?)
4. Occupational Outlook (How many job openings are projected for the	is career	?)
5. Personal characteristics/ abilities (not skills) are needed for this care	er:
<ol><li>Advantages for this career (this may not be on site since it can vary to person):</li></ol>	from per	son
<ol> <li>Disadvantages for this career (this may not be on site since it can var person to person):</li> </ol>	ry from
8. Working conditions (inside, outside; lifting or not; hours; etc.):
9. Would I be suited to this job and consider it as a career possibility?	WHY?

10. At least ONE address where I could find FURTHER information: (Usually association for this career- found all the way at bottom of page)