

Reading 2018 Questions

Read the following passage.

The passage is a section from a book about the history of the United States. It discusses the early years of the nation, from the time of the first settlers to the end of the American Revolution. The author describes the challenges the colonists faced, such as lack of resources and conflict with Native Americans. He also talks about the growth of the colonies and the eventual decision to declare independence from Britain. The passage ends with a reflection on the significance of the American Revolution and its impact on the world.

[[Page 201]]

Name _____

1. The author's main purpose in writing this passage is to	inform the reader about the history of the United States.
2. According to the passage, the early settlers of the United States	faced many challenges, such as lack of resources and conflict with Native Americans.
3. The author describes the growth of the colonies as	rapid and successful.
4. The American Revolution was a result of	the colonists' desire for independence from Britain.
5. The passage concludes that the American Revolution	was a significant event in world history.

Answer the following questions.

Write the letter of the correct answer in the space provided.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____