

Name:

Date:

FORMAL OR INFORMAL?

We use different words for different places and situations. Some words are casual or informal. These words are best used in spoken conversations and discussions. In writing, it is better to use more formal words.

Informal example: I was like, "Who do you think you are?"

Formal example: I said, "Who do you think you are?"

---

Identify these sentences and write "formal sentence" or "informal sentence" in the blank space.

1) The fam wants the kids home early.

---

2) The summer vacation is too short.

---

3) Well, many folks agree with the law.

---

4) His teacher gave a science test on Tuesday.

---

5) The club members elected a president.

---

6) Her brother had a melt down because she borrowed his phone.

---

7) The school bus arrived early at the library.

---

8) The TV is busted.

---