THE LOST KITE

One breezy afternoon, Daniel and his friend Sarah went to the park to fly their new kite. As they were having fun, a strong gust of wind blew the kite away. Daniel asked, "Where did the kite go?" They looked up and saw the kite stuck in a tall tree. Sarah said, "Who can help us get the kite down?" They saw Mr. Thompson, the park ranger, walking nearby and decided to ask for his help. Mr. Thompson brought a long pole and carefully reached up to the kite. "What will happen if we can't get the kite down?" Daniel wondered aloud. Luckily, Mr. Thompson managed to free the kite and bring it back down. Daniel and Sarah thanked Mr. Thompson. "Why did the wind blow the kite away?" Sarah asked. Mr. Thompson explained, "The wind was very strong today, which made it difficult to control the kite." As they continued to fly the kite, Daniel asked, "When can we come back to the park?" Sarah smiled and said, "We can come back anytime the weather is nice."
