

Name _____ Date _____

Video Games in Schools

Do you agree or disagree with the statement below?

Video games should be part of the school curriculum because they can help students develop problem-solving skills.

State your opinion and use details to support your point of view.

