TECHNOLOGY AND ISOLATION

While technology has made it easier than ever to stay connected, studies show that increased screen time may actually be making people feel more isolated.

Social media platforms offer the illusion of connection but often lack the depth and intimacy of face-to-face interactions. As people spend more time online, real-world relationships can suffer.

Questions:

- 1. What is the paradox presented in the passage?*
- 2. What does the author suggest about social media relationships?*
- 3. Define "illusion" in context.*
- 4. What is the main argument of the passage?*
- 5. Do you agree or disagree with the author's view? Explain briefly.*
