

Name: _____

Date: _____

PRONOUNS WORKSHEETS

Locate the error, correct it, and rewrite the sentence correctly.

1. Everyone hate to lose the game.
Everyone hates to lose the game.
2. They always work by theirselves.
They always work by themselves.
3. These is the best sandwiches I have ever had.
These are the best sandwiches I have ever had.
4. The girl which I spoke to was a redhead.
The girl whom/who/that/Ø I spoke to was a redhead.
5. Paula visited Paris, that is in France.
Paula visited Paris, which is in France.
6. There are a few good reasons, but many is bad.
There are a few good reasons, but many are bad.
7. Somebody are hiding in the closet.
Somebody is hiding in the closet.
8. You can't trust people whom lie.
You can't trust people who/that lie.
9. Mr. Tucker, whom is an English teacher, works at the university.
Mr. Tucker, who is an English teacher, works at the university.
10. There are many reasons to leave. One is to make more money.
Other is to get a promotion.
There are many reasons to leave. One is to make more money.
Another is to get a promotion.