The Little Blue Bird

One sunny morning, Lily went to the park with her mother.

She sat on a bench and ate her sandwich.

Suddenly, she saw a little blue bird on the ground.

The bird looked tired and weak.

Lily felt worried. She gently picked up the bird and gave it some water.

Then, she shared a few crumbs of her sandwich.

The bird slowly began to feel better.

After a while, the bird flapped its wings and flew into the sky.

Lily smiled and waved. She felt happy because she helped a small friend.
