A Picnic at the Lake

Today is Sunday. The sun is shining, and the sky is blue.
Lily and her brother, Sam, are going to the lake with their parents.
They are going to have a picnic.

Dad drives the car. Mom brings a big basket with food.
Inside the basket, there are peanut butter sandwiches,
sweet red apples, and cold juice.

When they arrive, Lily and Sam run to the water.
They see three small ducks swimming in a line. "Look!" Sam says.
"The ducks are hungry." Lily throws some small pieces of bread into the water. The ducks are very happy.

After playing, the family sits on a soft green blanket.
They eat their lunch under a big shady tree.
Lily likes the sandwiches, but Sam likes the apples best.
After they eat, they clean up all their trash to keep the park beautiful.
It is a wonderful day!
