The Brave Little Seed

Directions:

Read the passage carefully. Then answer the questions below in complete sentences.

One day, a small seed fell from a tall tree. The wind carried it far away into a big open field. The seed felt scared because it was alone and far from home.

Soon, the rain began to fall. The tiny seed was pushed deeper into the soft, dark soil. At first, it did not like the darkness. It missed the sunlight and the other seeds from the tree.

Days passed, and the seed decided to be brave. It began to grow small roots under the ground. Then, a tiny green sprout pushed up toward the sunlight.

After many weeks, the little seed grew into a strong, beautiful flower. Bees and butterflies visited it every day. The seed was no longer afraid. It was proud of how much it had grown.
