Read & Learn

The Civil Rights Movement was a time when people worked together to make sure everyone was treated fairly.

Long ago in the United States, some people were treated unfairly because of the color of their skin.
Many brave men and women stood up for equal rights.

One famous leader was Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
He believed in using peace and kindness to make change.

Because of the Civil Rights Movement, people today have more freedom and fairness.
