CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT WORKSHEET

The Civil Rights Movement was a time in history when people worked together to make sure everyone was treated fairly, no matter their skin color.

Many African Americans were treated unfairly.
They were not allowed to go to the same schools, buses, or restaurants as white people.

Brave leaders like Martin Luther King Jr., Rosa Parks, and many others helped change these unfair rules by using peaceful protests and strong voices.

Because of their hard work, new laws were made to give equal rights to everyone.
