

Name : _____ Date : _____

George Washington Carver

George Washington Carver was a famous Black inventor and scientist.

He was born a long time ago in the United States.

George loved learning about plants and nature.

He studied how plants grow and how they can help people.

George Washington Carver found many new ways to use peanuts.

He also worked with sweet potatoes and other crops.

His ideas helped farmers grow better food and take care of the land.

Because of his work, families had more food and better lives.

George Washington Carver is remembered for helping people and using science to solve problems.

Answer the questions!

1. Who is the inventor in the story?

2. What did George Washington Carver like to study?

3. Name one plant he worked with.

4. Who did his ideas help?
