READING COMPREHENSION

It was raining all morning, and Mia felt bored sitting inside. She wanted to play outside, but the puddles were too big. Her brother, Leo, had an idea. "Let's build a fort with blankets and chairs!" he said. Mia helped him drape the blankets over the chairs, and soon they had a cozy fort in the living room. They brought in books, flashlights, and snacks. The rain tapped on the windows while they read stories and laughed together. By the end of the day, Mia realized that rainy days could be fun too.

Answer each question.

1. What did Mia and Leo bring into the fort?

2. What lesson did Mia learn at the end of the story?

3. What sound did they hear while inside the fort?

4. Why was Mia bored at the beginning of the story?

5. What idea did Leo have?
