Women's History Month

Women's History Month is celebrated every March in the United States. It is a special time to learn about the achievements of women in history.

People remember leaders, scientists, artists, and heroes who helped change the world.

One important woman was Amelia Earhart. She was a brave pilot who loved to fly. She became the first woman to fly alone across the Atlantic Ocean. Another hero was Rosa Parks, who stood up for fairness and equal rights.

Women's History Month teaches respect, courage, and the importance of believing in yourself.
