

Name : _____ Date : _____

Fun Rainy Day

It was a cold and rainy morning, and dark clouds filled the sky. The rain kept falling all day long, so Ben could not go outside to play with his friends. He looked out the window and sighed because he really wanted to ride his bike.

At first, Ben felt bored and didn't know what to do. He walked around the house and tried playing with his toys, but nothing seemed fun. Then, he got an idea! Ben decided to build a cozy fort in the living room.

He gathered blankets, pillows, and chairs to make his fort.

He carefully covered the chairs with blankets to create a roof.

Inside the fort, he placed his favorite books, a flashlight, and some snacks.

It felt like his own little secret hideout.

Ben crawled inside and turned on the flashlight.

He pretended he was exploring a dark cave full of mysteries.

He read his books and made up fun stories in his head.

The sound of rain tapping on the roof made it even more exciting.

After a while, Ben forgot all about being bored. He spent the whole afternoon in his fort, laughing and enjoying his time. By the time the rain stopped, Ben was already having too much fun inside to even go out!

Questions:

1. What was the weather like that day? _____
2. Why couldn't Ben go outside? _____
3. How did Ben feel at the beginning of the story? _____
4. What did Ben try to do before building the fort? _____
5. What idea did Ben have? _____
6. What materials did Ben use to build the fort? _____
7. What items did he bring inside the fort? _____
8. What did Ben pretend while inside the fort? _____
9. What sound made the experience more exciting? _____
10. How did Ben feel at the end of the story? _____