BRAIN TEASER PRACTICE

What is as light as a feather,
but even the strongest
Might not be able to hold it
For more than a minute?

Breath

I am full of holes,
but I can still hold
A lot of water. What am I?

A sponge

A word I know,
six letters it contains,
remove one letter
And 12 remains, what is it?

Dozens

What gets wet while drying?

A towel!

I am at the center of gravity
And you can find me
In venus but not in earth.
Who am i?

Letter 'v'

What can you hold
Without using your hands?

Your breath!

The more you take,
the more you leave behind.
What are they?

Footsteps

What five letter word
Becomes shorter when
You add two letters to it?

Short (short + 'er')
