The Windy Afternoon

Read the short passage and answer the questions.

One autumn afternoon, strong wind blew through the town. Leaves flew everywhere, dancing in the air. Budi held his hat tightly so it would not fly away.

After school, Budi and his friends flew kites in the field. The wind made their kites go higher and higher. They cheered as they watched the colorful kites in the sky.

Questions:

1. What blew through the town?

2. What happened to the leaves?

3. What did Budi hold?

4. What did they do after school?

5. What happened to the kites?
