MAIN IDEA

Rachel is an adorable dog. She is a Cavachon. A Cavachon is a mix of Cavalier King and a Bichon Frise, but she looks like a Dalmatian. She is both intelligent and loving. She loves attention. She always does things that earn her praise. She is a distinguished companion. Anyone who is looking for a dog should consider adopting a Cavachon. They are very cute. They hardly ever bark. They are good with small children. Best of all, Cavachons are easy to train. My dog Rachel has brought me the joy of our home.
