Emma's First Day Back at School

Summer vacation is over, and Emma is excited to go back to school. She wakes up early, gets dressed, and eats breakfast with her family. Then she puts on her new backpack and walks to school with her mom.

When Emma arrives at school, she sees many students in the playground. Some are talking with friends, and others are playing games. Emma smiles when she sees her best friend, Lily. They are happy to be in the same class again.

Soon, the bell rings, and everyone goes to their classroom. Emma meets her new teacher, Mrs. Carter. Mrs. Carter welcomes the students and shows them around the classroom. Emma finds her desk and puts away her school supplies.

During the day, the class reads a story, practices writing, and makes colorful name tags. At lunchtime, Emma sits with Lily and some new classmates. They talk about their summer vacations and favorite hobbies.

At the end of the day, Emma feels tired but happy. She learned new things, made new friends, wonderful first day back at school.
