A Walk Through Autumn

It is a beautiful autumn morning. Lily and her grandfather go for a walk in the park. The air is cool, and the trees are covered with red, orange, and golden leaves.

As they walk, leaves gently fall to the ground.

Lily enjoys crunching the leaves under her shoes.

She picks up her favorite colorful leaves and puts them in a small bag.

Soon they visit a pumpkin patch. Lily chooses a round orange pumpkin to take home. After that, they drink warm apple cider and share a tasty apple pie.

When they get home, Lily uses the colorful leaves to make a beautiful autumn picture. She smiles and says, "Autumn is such a wonderful season!"
