The Lost Scarf

Lily wears her favorite orange scarf on a windy fall afternoon. She walks through the park with her grandfather. Colorful leaves swirl around them while cool air blows across the path.

Suddenly, a strong gust of wind carries Lily's scarf into a small maple tree. A friendly park worker uses a long stick to help get it down. Lily thanks him with a big smile. She is happy to have her warm scarf back before going home.

Questions:

1. What color is Lily's scarf?

2. Who walks with Lily?

3. Where does the scarf land?

4. Who helps Lily?

5. Why is Lily happy at the end?
