A BUSY DAY AT THE PUMPKIN PATCH

Last Saturday, Mia and her family visited a pumpkin patch.
The weather was cool, and colorful leaves covered the ground.
Mia wore her favorite sweater and boots.

First, they rode on a hayride around the farm.
They saw rows of pumpkins in many shapes and sizes.
Mia picked a large, round pumpkin to take home.

Next, they walked through a corn maze.
At first, they took a few wrong turns, but they worked together and found the way out.
Everyone laughed and cheered.

Before going home, Mia drank warm apple cider and ate a sweet apple donut.
She said it was the best fall day ever.
At home, her family carved funny faces into their pumpkin and placed it on the front porch.
