The Black Cat's Adventure

Midnight was a curious black cat who loved Halloween. On Halloween night, he explored the neighborhood wearing a tiny orange bow tie. He watched children in colorful costumes going from house to house to collect candy.

Midnight followed the children until they stopped at a house with bright jack-o'-lanterns. The friendly homeowner smiled and gave the children candy. Then, the homeowner gave Midnight a small bag of cat treats. Midnight purred happily and rubbed against the homeowner's legs.

When the night was over, Midnight walked home under the bright full moon. He curled up on his favorite blanket, happy after his fun Halloween adventure.
