

Name :

Date :

The Mystery of the THREE TOMBSTONES

On Halloween night, Lily and her brother Ben were walking home after trick-or-treating when they noticed something strange in the old cemetery near their town.

Three tombstones stood quietly under the bright moon.
Suddenly, they heard a soft sound.

"Tap... tap... tap..."

Ben pointed toward the middle tombstone. A small green hand was sticking out of the ground!

Lily held her flashlight tightly as they slowly walked closer.
But instead of a scary zombie, they found a tiny green monster named Gus.

"I'm sorry," said Gus. "I was looking for my Halloween party invitation.
The wind blew it away and I accidentally got stuck in the dirt while searching for it."

Lily and Ben helped Gus climb out of the ground.
Together, they searched around the cemetery until Ben found a purple invitation near the fence.

Gus smiled happily.

"Thank you for helping me! Would you like to come to the Halloween Monster Party tonight?"

Lily and Ben looked at each other and laughed.

That Halloween night, they ate cupcakes, played games, and danced with ghosts, bats, and friendly monsters under the moonlight.

It became the most unforgettable Halloween they had ever experienced.

1.) Who were walking home after trick-or-treating?

2.) Where did Lily and Ben see the three tombstones?

3.) What sound did they hear in the cemetery?

4.) What was sticking out of the ground?

5.) What was the name of the little monster?

