THE LOST PUMPKIN

HALLOWEEN

Lily was excited for Halloween. She wore her favorite witch costume and carried a small orange bucket for candy.

As she walked to her friend's house, she saw a little pumpkin sitting alone by the road. "Whose pumpkin is this?" Lily wondered.

She looked around but could not find its owner. Then she saw a small note attached to the pumpkin.

The note said, "Please help me find my home."

Lily carried the pumpkin around the neighborhood and finally found a house with many pumpkins on the porch.

A little boy opened the door and smiled. "Thank you for bringing my pumpkin back!" he said. Lily smiled and continued trick-or-treating with her friends.
