THE LITTLE PUMPKIN'S FIRST HALLOWEEN

It was Halloween morning.

A little pumpkin named Pip sat in a pumpkin patch. Pip had never been to a Halloween party before.

"I hope someone picks me," Pip said. Soon, a girl named Lily came with her family. She smiled at Pip.

"This is the perfect pumpkin!" she said.

Lily took Pip home. She cleaned him and carved a happy face. Then she put a little candle inside.

When the sun went down, Pip glowed with a warm, bright light. Children walked from house to house wearing fun costumes. They said, "Trick or treat!" and filled their bags with candy.

Pip watched everyone laugh and smile. "This is the best Halloween ever!" Pip thought happily.

QUESTIONS:

Where did Pip live at the beginning of the story?

What did Lily do after taking Pip home?

Why was Pip happy at the end?
