It was Halloween night, and Mia carried a glowing pumpkin lantern as she walked home.
Suddenly, she heard a strange whisper coming from the old pumpkin patch.
"Help... someone, please..."

Mia looked around but couldn't see anyone.
Then, one tiny pumpkin began to wiggle. It slowly opened its eyes and smiled.
"Please follow me," the little pumpkin said.

Mia took a deep breath and stepped forward.
As they walked through the moonlit field,
they discovered a hidden path leading into the dark woods.
At the end of the path, they saw an old wooden gate slowly creak open...

What happened next?
