Answer the questions below.

One sunny afternoon, Anne was walking back from the park when she saw a tiny puppy. The puppy looked lost, and it didn't have a collar on. Anne felt sad for the little puppy and decided to take it home. She was sure her parents wouldn't mind.

When Anne reached home, she showed the puppy to her parents. They were happy to see the puppy, but they were also worried about its owner. They asked Anne to put up posters around the neighborhood to try and find the puppy's owner.

Anne and her parents put up posters in the park and around the neighborhood. They also posted a picture of the puppy on social media. After a few days, they received a call from someone who claimed to be the puppy's owner. They were very happy to be reunited with their beloved pet.
