HISTORY OF ELECTION DAY

Put the election year events in the correct order.

August through October - The Big Campaign

Now the race really takes off. Expect lots of advertisements, debates, and handshakes!

1

Early November - Election Day

The big day falls on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November. It's time for the candidates to sit back while the voters make history!

2

July - National Conventions

The Democratic and Republican parties hold conventions to name their candidates for president and vice president.

3

January after Election Day - Inauguration Day

On January 20th, the new president is sworn into office. There are lots of parties and parades... and then the hard work begins.

4

January through June - Primaries

States hold primaries and other kinds of elections to choose each party's candidate.
