Benny

AND THE LOST PUMPKIN

Benny was a funny orange monster who lived in a little house beside a pumpkin farm. He had three eyes, four short arms, and a big round nose.

One afternoon, Benny wanted to make pumpkin soup. He walked to the farm and picked a large pumpkin. But when he carried it home, the pumpkin fell out of his arms and rolled down the hill.

"Oh no!" Benny shouted.

Benny ran after the pumpkin. It rolled past a tree, across a bridge, and into a small garden. Benny finally caught it beside a wooden fence.

A little rabbit was sitting near the fence. Benny smiled and said, "Hello!"

The rabbit helped Benny carry the pumpkin home. Benny made a big pot of pumpkin soup and shared it with his new friend.

Benny was happy. He learned that helping others can make a day more fun!
