THANKSGIVING READING

Answer each question.

Thanksgiving is a special day in the USA. Families gather to say "thanks" for good things. It happens in November. People cook yummy food like turkey and pumpkin pie. They eat together and feel happy.

Some watch parades with big balloons. Others play games. It's a time for fun and love. Many families share what they're grateful for. Some like to help others too. Thanksgiving is about being thankful and kind. Kids might make crafts or draw turkeys. It's a day to be with those we love and appreciate good things. That's why Thanksgiving is a special and happy day!
