THE MONSTER AND THE MISSING CAKE

Bobo was a blue monster who lived in a cozy house near the hill. He loved baking cakes for his family.

One Saturday, Bobo baked a big chocolate cake. He put the cake on the kitchen table and went outside to pick some flowers.

When Bobo came back, the cake was gone!

"Where is my cake?" Bobo asked.

He looked under the table, behind the chair, and inside the kitchen cupboard. He could not find it.

Then Bobo saw a trail of chocolate crumbs on the floor. He followed the crumbs to the garden.

There, he found his little sister, Mimi. She was sitting beside the cake.

"I wanted to taste it," Mimi said.

Bobo laughed. "Next time, just ask me!"

Mimi smiled and gave Bobo a big hug. They decided to share the cake with the whole family.
