NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Christmas Morning

Christmas morning was finally here!
Emma woke up early and heard Christmas music playing downstairs.
She quickly got out of bed and put on her red sweater.

When Emma went downstairs, she saw a beautiful Christmas tree covered with colorful lights. Several presents were sitting under the tree.
Her family was in the kitchen making a special Christmas breakfast.

After breakfast, Emma and her brother opened their presents.
Emma received a new storybook and a box of colored pencils.
Her brother got a toy train. They thanked their parents and happily played with their new gifts.

In the afternoon, Emma's family visited Grandma's house.
Grandma had made Christmas cookies shaped like stars, bells, and Christmas trees.
Everyone ate cookies, talked, and laughed together.

Emma thought it was a wonderful Christmas Day because she got to spend time with the people she loved.

Answer the Questions!

1.) What did Emma's family make for breakfast? _____

2.) What shapes were Grandma's cookies? _____

3.) Who opened presents with Emma? _____

4.) What did Emma and her family do at Grandma's house? _____

5.) Why did Emma think Christmas Day was wonderful? _____