CHRISTMAS MORNING SURPRISE

Emma woke up early on Christmas morning.
She quietly walked downstairs and saw colorful presents under the Christmas tree.
The room was decorated with bright lights, red ribbons, and shiny ornaments.

Emma noticed one small gift with her name on it.
She opened it carefully and found a beautiful red scarf inside.
She was very happy because red was her favorite color.

After opening her gift, Emma helped her mother prepare breakfast.
They made pancakes, fruit, and hot chocolate.
When her family sat together at the table, Emma thanked everyone for making Christmas morning so special.

Later that day, Emma and her family visited Grandma.
They brought cookies and a small Christmas gift for her.
Grandma smiled and gave Emma a big hug.

Emma thought it was the best Christmas she had ever had because she spent the day with the people she loved.
