A Special Christmas Morning

Emma woke up early on Christmas morning.
She looked out her window and saw snow covering the ground.
The Christmas tree in the living room was shining with colorful lights.

Emma ran downstairs and saw three presents under the tree.
One present was big, one was small, and one was wrapped in red paper with a golden bow.

"Can I open them?" Emma asked her mom.

"Of course!" Mom said with a smile.

Emma opened the small present first. Inside was a beautiful storybook.
The big present had a warm purple sweater. The red present had a box of colorful crayons.

Emma was very happy. She hugged her mom and thanked her for the gifts.
Then, the family sat together and ate a delicious Christmas breakfast.

It was a wonderful Christmas morning.
